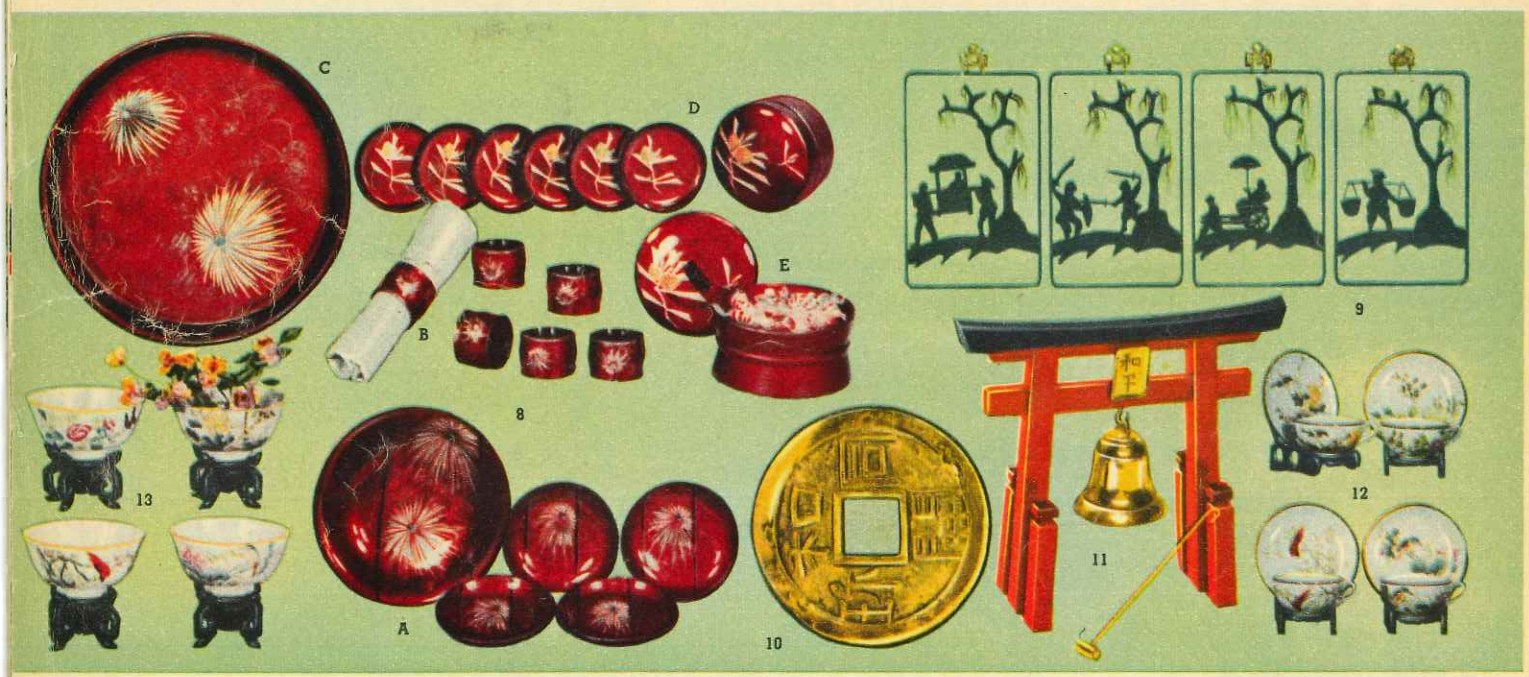
(Wt. 3½ lbs.) R241—4-Pc. Apothecary Jars, $3.98



8-A thru E. Ruby Pigeon-Blood Lacquerware is as mystic as an oriental night, and as exotic in design as that used by dynasty rulers over twenty-five centuries ago. Created with the same painstaking skill that artisans have used for generations, pigeon-blood lacquerware is still capable of thrilling the hearts and minds of home decorators who value the unique and lovely. Manufactured by one of the foremost Japanese factories in Kyoto, these treasures are imported exclusively for Helen Gallagher's customers. Each piece is painstakingly crafted of wood with over fifteen individual coats of lacquer to give them the smooth, deep, shimmering finish that is characteristic of only the finest makers. The modern design depicts a golden sunburst, inset with mother-of-pearl and softly flecked with gold dust for an effect that's truly breathtaking. Candy box and coaster set have a sleek, modern pine cone motif. Buy these for truly inspirational gifts, at prices almost one-half that charged by leading art stores.
